The Hot Dog Caper will be held September 26 in the University Park from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. The entire campus community can come and enjoy free hot dogs, Pepsi products, chips, ice cream and more. For 23 years the Hot Dog Caper has brought together students, faculty and staff to enjoy free food and entertainment. Chuck Street from KIIS FM will kick off the event at 11:30 a.m. with Billy Bronco followed by a performance from Stacy Clark beginning at University Hour.

Stacy Clark, whose music has been featured on Laguna Beach and The Hills, is a native of Buffalo, New York. She has also been the recipient of two esteemed awards this year, the Inland Empire Music Award for Best Out of County Artist and the Southern California Music Award for Best Female Performer. Stacy's performance couldn't come at a more convenient time. The Hot Dog Caper will be overlapping with the Music Saves Lives Blood Drive, which runs September 26 and 27. Stacy Clark was a blood donor recipient for a life-saving transfusion in 1998 and is now an advocate for Music Saves Lives.

The goal of the Hot Dog Caper is to promote school spirit and unite the Cal Poly Pomona community, including students, faculty and staff.
