Along with serving as two-time mayor for the city of Yorba Linda, Ryan has also served as chair for the Foothill/ Eastern Transportation Corridor Agency and the Placentia-Linda Hospital Governing Board. Ryan has written a considerable number of articles about urban planning, been a guest on radio and television shows, and has held professional speaking engagements for Cal Poly Pomona and USC.

This is the first workshop sought out by ASI Alumni Programs and the newly formed ASI Alumni Chapter. According to Allan Diaz, ASI Alumni Programs Manager, future workshops will depend on student interest and volunteering by ASI alumni to conduct such seminars.

Established in 1963, Associated Students, Inc. (ASI) of Cal Poly Pomona is a recognized auxiliary organization of California State Polytechnic University, Pomona that is led, funded and mainly staffed by students. Guided by the core commitments to the promotion of student development and provision of excellent facilities, programs and services, ASI provides for student representation at the campus and California State University system-wide level and offers leadership development through student government, student-led programming, student employment and student involvement in a wide array of Bronco Student Center programs and services, including the Bronco Fitness Center, as well as the Children's Center. ASI fully supports the enrichment of student life by providing annual funding support for student clubs and organizations, diversity programs, athletic scholarships and academic support programs.
