Press Release

High Speed Wireless Internet Access Now Available in the Bronco Student Center

The Associated Students, Inc. (ASI), in partnership with the Cal Poly Pomona Division of Instructional and Information Technology (I&IT), is pleased to announce free, high-speed wireless internet access is now available in the Bronco Student Center. Students, faculty, staff, alumni and visitors with compatible laptop computers can access the Internet through wireless connections from all public spaces in and around the facility, including study lounges, lobbies, meeting rooms, the Study Terrace and Center Court.

Most laptop computers purchased within the past three years should be wireless compatible. To determine if your notebook computer is compatible or for computer related questions, please visit the I&IT Help Desk in Building 1, Room 100 on Mondays-Thursdays from 7:30 am to 6:00 pm and Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. You may also call extension 6776 or email the Help Desk at helpdesk@csupomona.edu.

Established in 1963, Associated Students, Inc. of Cal Poly Pomona is a recognized auxiliary organization of California State Polytechnic University, Pomona that is led, funded and mainly staffed by students. Guided by the core commitments to the promotion of student development and provision of excellent facilities, programs and services, ASI provides for student representation at the campus and California State University system-wide level and offers leadership development through student government, student-led programming, student employment and student involvement in a wide array of Bronco Student Center programs and services, including the Bronco Fitness Center, as well as the Children's Center. ASI fully supports the enrichment of student life by providing annual funding support for student clubs and organizations, diversity programs, athletic scholarships and academic support programs.

For more information on ASI, visit www.as.csupomona.edu.

###

cc: Charles Gruver
    Cora Culla