Mend a Heart.

Associated Students, Inc. Cal Poly Pomona, the Inland Valley Daily Bulletin, and Pomona First Federal Bank & Trust are working together with the Salvation Army to collect essential goods for victims of the local wildfires. Donations will be accepted today through November 7.

ASI has partnered with the Bronco Events and Activities Team where people can attend the Haunted Student Center, October 31 from 3-5p.m. in the Bronco Student Center (building 35), for free with two canned food items or pay $2 to be donated to The Salvation Army.

Bronco Athletics and ASI are working together at the men's and women's soccer games Saturday, November 1, against Cal State San Bernardino. The community can attend for free when they bring canned food or a donation for The Salvation Army. The men's team plays at 4:30 p.m. and the women play at 7 p.m. at Kellogg Field.

Donations can consist of the following:

- First aid supplies; non-perishable canned or packaged food; bottled water or other beverages; paper plates and cups; personal hygiene items;
- Pet food and supplies; clothing; household towels and linens; hand tools; flashlights; batteries;
- Cleaning supplies; and comfort items such as games, movie tapes and stuffed animals.

Donations made throughout the week can be made at the following locations:
