ASI Vice President Resigns

February 16, 2004 - Associated Students, Inc. Government announces Jennifer Castaneda's resignation as ASI student body Vice President.

"I have truly enjoyed working with all of you and am confident that you will all succeed in fulfilling our mission of serving the students of Cal Poly Pomona," Castaneda said in her statement.

Castaneda was elected by the students of Cal Poly Pomona and took office on July 1, 2003. According to Jason Dyogi, ASI President, Castaneda was a "valuable and talented leader of the ASI Family." Dyogi will appoint a Vice President for the remainder of the term. The appointment must be confirmed by majority vote of the seated ASI Senate.
