It's Here. ASI Announces a Dedication and Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

Over the course of its history the Bronco Student Center, formerly known as the University Union, has gone through many phases and developments. To celebrate the opening of the new and improved Bronco Student Center, Associated Students, Inc. (ASI) announces a dedication and ribbon cutting ceremony on April 29, 2003.

Among those in attendance will be student leaders, Cal Poly Pomona faculty and staff, and other off campus guests who will join University President Bob H. Suzuki, ASI President Uwaifo Obanor, Mt. San Antonio College President Christopher C. O'Hearn, and former ASI President Kyle Williams for the Bronco Student Center's dedication to the Cal Poly Pomona campus community.

The Dedication and Ribbon Cutting Ceremony will begin at 12 p.m. in the University Park.
