

ASI Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:
October 9, 2001

University Union Reopens Its Doors

CONTACT:

Jeff Hoffman
Associate Director for Marketing & Programs
(909) 869-2854

Following the completion of University Union Improvement Project 2-related enhancements to the existing facility, the University Union has reopened its doors to the campus community.

The first floor opened on Monday, October 8, 2001. Operating hours during the first week will be 7am-10pm, Monday-Friday, and 12pm-4pm Saturday. Bronco Copy-N-Mail, Round-Table Pizza, Stuffed Sub, and The Visitor Center have returned to their original locations in the Union. Cal Poly Pomona Credit Union which never moved from its original location remains open for service. The Lecture Room and the Dining Alcove are again available to reserve for meetings and events through the ASI Conference and Events Office.

Beginning on Monday, October 15, 2001, the ASI Games Room, Etc. will be open for business. The Union hours of operation will be altered 7am-11pm M-F and 12pm-4pm Saturdays for the remainder of the fall quarter.

The second floor remains temporarily closed until January 2002. Until then, ASI offices will be housed in the modular office buildings adjacent to the University Union in University Park. The ASI Box Office, Human Resources, Conference and Events, Custodial and Maintenance Departments will be in Modular Office 1; the ASI Business Office will be located in Modular Office 2; and the ASI Executive Director, Associate Executive Director, and ASI Associate Director for Marketing and Programs will share office space in Modular Office 3.

All staff can be reached by calling their original phone numbers – those listed in the Cal Poly Pomona Phone Telephone Directory or posted on the new ASI Website, www.ASI.csupomona.edu.